Changes to the terms and conditions 2018/19

1. This season we are piloting a form of photo identification for all under 18 season ticket holders. All applications for these season tickets will have to have a head and shoulders shot of the young person. This can be provided by the applicant electronically or can be taken by a member of GAFC staff at the point of collection. If you have requested postal delivery of your season ticket any under 18 tickets will be held back as collect in person only. This is in order to prevent unauthorised transfer of a season ticket.

Optional Donations

- 1) Any donations made by any supporters will be ring-fenced into the project / area selected by them. The club will liaise with the official supporters' club committee members at regular points over the season to update on the current levels of donations and on how the club plans to invest the funds, whilst also providing updates in the match day programme and website.
- 2) Any donations related to "Build the budget" will be added to the playing budget for the 2018/19 season.
- 3) Donations towards pitch renovations and ground improvements will be discussed with both the groundsman and supporters club to ascertain where best to invest the money. Suggestions are welcomed if/when donating if there is a specific area you wish to see improved.
- 4) Donations towards our Academy will go towards improving the infrastructure and facilities for our young talent. This could also go towards funding an Under 21/23s team in the future.
- 5) Even if you do not wish to donate yourself, the club would like to hear from all supporters about any areas they wish to see improve and/or any ideas on how the club can achieve this. Please either add comments below and return with your season ticket application or contact James Pickles on James.Pickles@Guiseleyafc.co.uk
